The April 2018 examination was of five days duration with 371 candidates sitting of whom 272 were successful, resulting in an overall pass rate of 73.3%. The proportion of candidates sitting the examination for the first time was 80.6% and the pass rate for this particular group was 77.6%.

The mean score was 81 out of 117 and the highest mark on this occasion was 111. A further eight candidates obtained overall scores of 100 marks or more.