The March 2018 examination was of 13 days duration with 998 candidates sitting, of whom 800 were successful resulting in an overall pass rate of 80.2%. The proportion of first time takers at 93.8% was slightly lower than the 95.9% recorded in March 2017. The pass rate for first time applicants on this occasion was 82.9%.

The mean score was 82 out of 117 and the highest mark on this occasion was 109 achieved by two candidates. A further 36 candidates obtained overall scores of 100 marks or more.