May 2014 CSA - results summary

The May 2014 CSA examination was sat by 879 candidates during a 12 day period between 9 and 24 May, with 424 (48%) of the cohort sitting for the first time. Comparable figures for the corresponding examination in May 2013 were 1039 sitting, of whom 485 (46.6%) were first time applicants.

On this occasion 573 candidates were successful overall resulting in a pass rate of 65.2%, the corresponding figures for May 2013 being 617 passes and an overall pass rate 59.4%. The pass rate for first time applicants was 76.2%, the comparable figure for the May 2013 examination being 70.3%. The mean score for the entire cohort was 78 out of 117, with the highest score being 108 marks and 27 candidates in all scoring 100 marks or more. The minimum score achieved on this occasion was 45 marks, compared with just 37 in May 2013, with a further three candidates scoring below 50 marks.