CSA November 2013: Results summary

The November 2013 CSA examination was sat by 860 candidates during a 13 day period between 8 and 23 November, with 510 (59.3%) of this cohort sitting for the first time. Comparable figures for the corresponding examination in November 2012 were 815 sitting, of whom 429 (52.6%) were first time applicants.

On this occasion 605 candidates were successful overall resulting in a pass rate of 70.3%, the corresponding figures for November 2012 being 634 passes and an overall pass rate 60.1%. The pass rate for first time applicants was 83.5%, the comparable figure for the November 2012 examination being 79.5%.

The mean score for the entire cohort this time was 81 out of 117, with the highest score being 112 marks out of 117 available; 44 candidates in all scored 100 marks or more. The lowest score achieved on this occasion was just 40 marks.