CSA May 2015: Results summary

550 candidates sat CSA examinations during eight days between 14 and 23 May. 358 candidates were successful resulting in an overall pass rate of 65.1%. 40.5% (223) of the candidates were sitting the examination for the first time, the pass rate for this particular group being 73.1%.

The mean score for the entire cohort was 77 out of 117 with the highest mark on this occasion being 109, which was achieved by a candidate sitting the examination for the first time. A further 11 candidates scored 100 marks or more, 10 of whom were making a first application. Of the lowest scoring candidates, 11 obtained overall scores of 20 marks or more below the passing threshold for the day on which they sat the examination, and all but two of this group were re-sitting.