CSA March 2015: results summary

995 candidates in all sat the CSA on 14 days in March. 762 candidates were successful resulting in an overall pass rate of 76.6%. 90.8% (903) of the candidates were sitting the examination for the first time, the pass rate for this particular group of being 80.8%.

The candidate with the highest mark on this occasion scored 112 out of 117; a further 30 candidates scored 100 marks or more, all of whom were making a first application. Of the lowest scoring candidates, 10 obtained overall scores of 20 marks or more below the passing threshold for the day on which they sat the examination and five of this group were sitting for the first time.