Thrive GP!

Eligibility, criteria and how to enter:

1. This award is for a piece of work involving any creative technique.

2. This competition is open to members or fellows of the Royal College of General Practitioners in good standing, and currently practising as GPs in Wales.

3. The application must be made using the official application form.

4. Applications may be made by only one individual in respect of work undertaken.

5. Applications should include a typed description plus an accompanying reflection of not less than 100 words describing the work that is being submitted and how it has contributed to a productive work-life balance.

6. The work must be submitted in either a .jpg or .tiff file format and may include the GP displaying the work if necessary.

7. In the interests of openness and transparency, the adjudicators will be judging anonymised submissions for this award. All personal details will therefore be removed prior to the judging process.

8. The submissions will be adjudicated by a panel, including representation from the RCGP Wales Patient Group.

9. Completed applications should be submitted by email to welshc@rcgp.org.uk.

10. The closing date for receipt of applications is Friday 26 June 2020.

11. Any competition entry containing content deemed to be lewd, obscene or offensive will be disqualified.

12. The award will be presented at the RCGP Wales Annual Gala Awards Winter Ball.

13. The information provided to support applications will be used solely for the purpose of this competition.

14. Following adjudication of the competition and notification to applicants of the result, no further correspondence will be entered into relating the adjudication process.

15. By entering the competition, you are agreeing for the information submitted to be used in College publications to promote resilience and wellbeing.
