

Call for examples of good practice

You are invited to submit posters and papers on any aspect of working with drug and alcohol users in primary care.

Have you recently developed a service? Overcome a local problem and/or improved patient care? Perhaps you've undertaken research or a service quality improvement audit? Or even produced educational and training materials in a film or other media? This is your opportunity to share your work with primary care practitioners across the UK who deal with substance and behavioural addiction care.

Submissions could include but are not limited to:

- a brief description of your service and how it was developed
- how you overcame a local problem and/or improved practice
- research and/or service quality improvement audit that you have carried out.

We are accepting submissions in the following categories:

1. Paper

15-minute
(including Q&A) presentation of your paper,
research, audit or problem-solving exercise

2. Poster

To be displayed in the exhibition area throughout the conference

3. Film/other media

To be screened and/or presented at the conference

You can make as many submissions as you wish but please indicate clearly on the form below which category your submission is intended for. Your submission will be peer reviewed by a panel made up of the conference Chairs and experts in the field. Feedback on submissions will be available.

Celebrate 30 years with us

Alongside submissions from the above categories, we also want to celebrate services, research and work which are part of the history of addiction services with a special poster timeline exhibition. This can include posters which have been previously submitted.

Our new poster category to mark this anniversary is:

4. Celebrating 30 years of addiction services

Poster to be displayed in the exhibition area throughout the conference

General information

- All submissions will be peer-reviewed.
- All accepted posters will be exhibited throughout the event.
- Presenters whose paper, poster or other presentations are accepted must also book as a delegate to the conference and pay the registration fee.
- A prize will be awarded to each category according to a vote by conference delegates.
